

At a glance: Ireland

58%

in Ireland say mental health is the biggest health concern.

44%

think the quality of their healthcare is either good or very good.

15%

in Ireland believe the quality of healthcare will improve.

73%

say the healthcare system in their country is overstretched.

Perceived biggest healthcare problems:

Not enough staff

Access to treatment/long waiting times

Cost of accessing treatment

Ageing population

Lack of investment in preventative health

